

APOLOGY

Meaning: An apology is a statement expressing regret or remorse for an error or offense.

1. The actor issued a heartfelt apology to his fans for his recent behavior.
2. After realizing her mistake, she wrote a sincere apology letter to her friend.
3. His public apology was well-received, and many appreciated his honesty.
4. An apology can go a long way in mending broken relationships.
5. She accepted his apology, but it took time for her to fully trust him again.
6. The company's official apology addressed the concerns raised by its customers.
7. He felt that an apology was necessary to repair the damage he had caused.
8. They found it difficult to forgive him, even after his genuine apology.
9. An apology without change is often seen as insincere and meaningless.
10. Her unexpected apology caught everyone off guard, but it was a brave move.
11. I owe her a heartfelt apology for my thoughtless remarks.
12. His apology was sincere, and it helped to mend their friendship.
13. After the argument, he realized that an apology was necessary to move forward.
14. She accepted his apology, but it would take time for her to fully trust him again.
15. An apology can sometimes be the first step towards healing a broken relationship.
16. He wrote a letter of apology, hoping it would convey his remorse.
17. The manager issued an official apology for the inconvenience caused to the customers.
18. She felt that an apology was in order after accidentally spilling her drink on him.
19. His public apology received mixed reactions from the audience.
20. An apology without change is just a formality and may not be enough.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/apology>