

APONEUROTOMY

Meaning: Aponeurotomy is a surgical procedure that involves the incision of an aponeurosis to relieve tension and restore function in muscles.

1. Aponeurotomy is often performed to relieve tension and restore function in the affected muscles.
2. The surgeon explained that an aponeurotomy might be necessary to correct the deformity.
3. During the procedure, the aponeurotomy allowed for better access to the underlying structures.
4. Patients should be aware of the recovery process following an aponeurotomy.
5. Aponeurotomy is a common surgical intervention in the treatment of certain tendon injuries.
6. The success of the aponeurotomy largely depends on the skill of the surgeon.
7. After the aponeurotomy, physical therapy is usually recommended to aid recovery.
8. In children with specific muscular disorders, aponeurotomy can significantly improve mobility.
9. Complications from an aponeurotomy are rare but can include infection or scarring.
10. The decision to perform an aponeurotomy was made after careful consideration of all options.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aponeurotomy>