

APORT

Meaning: Aport means to steer or move a ship toward the port side or to the left when facing forward.

1. The ship was ordered to aport to the designated docking area.
2. As we approached the harbor, the captain instructed the crew to aport swiftly.
3. The captain skillfully maneuvered the vessel to aport without incident.
4. It's essential for boats to aport safely during stormy weather.
5. We watched as the massive cargo ship began to aport alongside the pier.
6. To ensure safety, the crew prepared the fenders before they began to aport.
7. The harbor master signaled for the yacht to aport after its long voyage.
8. He learned the importance of timing when it comes to aporting in busy ports.
9. The sailors were trained to aport precisely to avoid collisions with other vessels.
10. After a long day at sea, they finally made it to the port to aport and rest.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aport>