

APOSTROPHIC

Meaning: Apostrophic refers to a rhetorical device in which a speaker addresses an absent person, an abstract idea, or a thing as if it were present and capable of responding.

1. The poet's use of apostrophic addresses added depth to the emotional weight of the poem.
2. In her lecture, she explained how apostrophic speech allows characters to engage with absent figures.
3. The playwright's apostrophic moments created a powerful connection between the audience and the protagonist.
4. His apostrophic musings revealed his inner turmoil and longing for connection.
5. The novel utilized apostrophic dialogue to evoke a sense of nostalgia and loss.
6. During the performance, the actor delivered an apostrophic monologue that captivated the crowd.
7. She often wrote apostrophic letters to her younger self as a means of reflection.
8. The film's climactic scene featured an apostrophic plea that resonated with viewers.
9. Teachers often highlight the use of apostrophic expressions in classic literature to emphasize themes.
10. The artist's work displayed an apostrophic quality, inviting viewers to contemplate their own experiences.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/apostrophic>