

APPAIR

Meaning: APPAIR (verb): To combine or match two or more elements or interests in a harmonious or complementary way.

1. The magic trick seemed to pair perfectly with the theme of the show.
2. As the evening progressed, the two unlikely friends began to pair their interests.
3. The appair of colors in the sunset took everyone's breath away.
4. They decided to appair their efforts to tackle the community project together.
5. It was fascinating to see how the two musicians would appair their styles in the duet.
6. The chef recommended a wine that would appair wonderfully with the dish.
7. To enhance the experience, they sought to appair the settings with the music.
8. The designer aimed to appair the fabrics in a way that highlighted their textures.
9. In the garden, the flowers began to appair in vibrant hues as spring approached.
10. The documentary aimed to appair the lives of two cultures and their shared history.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/appair>