

APPALLING

Meaning: Appalling: causing shock or dismay; extremely bad or unacceptable.

1. The appalling conditions in the shelter left the volunteers in disbelief.
2. Her appalling behavior at the party shocked everyone in attendance.
3. The appalling lack of basic hygiene in the restaurant led to its closure.
4. He was appalled by the appalling treatment of animals in the facility.
5. The appalling news of the disaster spread quickly through the community.
6. Everyone was appalled by the appalling artwork displayed in the gallery.
7. The appalling truth about the corruption was finally revealed.
8. Witnesses described the appalling scene as chaotic and distressing.
9. Many found the appalling statistics on homelessness hard to comprehend.
10. The appalling response from the officials only fueled public outrage.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/appalling>