

APPALLMENT

Meaning: Appallment: a state of shock or dismay caused by something unexpected and distressing.

1. The appallment expressed by the community after the incident was palpable.
2. Everyone in the room was struck with appallment at the shocking news.
3. Her face was a mask of appallment when she heard the unexpected revelation.
4. The appallment in his voice revealed how deeply the betrayal affected him.
5. Witnesses spoke of their appallment at the disregard for human safety.
6. He could hardly contain his appallment at the lack of basic decency.
7. The appallment among the audience was evident during the documentary screening.
8. In the wake of the tragedy, there was a sense of appallment that lingered in the air.
9. The appallment felt by the victims' families highlighted the need for justice.
10. She struggled to articulate her appallment over the harsh realities presented in the report.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/appallment>