

APPEAL

Meaning: APPEAL (noun): a request for support or assistance, often made to evoke sympathy or compassion.

1. The charity launched a new campaign to appeal for donations to help the homeless.
2. Her heartfelt speech made a strong appeal to the audience's sense of compassion.
3. The artist's unique style has a universal appeal that resonates with many cultures.
4. After reviewing the case, the lawyer decided to file an appeal to the higher court.
5. The movie's stunning visuals and gripping storyline contributed to its broad appeal.
6. The team felt the need to appeal to the fans for their support during the challenging season.
7. His charm and wit had an undeniable appeal that drew people to him.
8. The government launched an appeal to encourage citizens to practice environmental conservation.
9. To successfully market the product, it must appeal to the target demographic.
10. She made a public appeal for information regarding her missing dog.
11. The charity launched a campaign to appeal for donations to support the local shelter.
12. Her heartfelt speech had the power to appeal to the audience's emotions.
13. The new art exhibit is designed to appeal to both children and adults alike.
14. He decided to file an appeal after the court's decision was announced.
15. The vibrant colors and unique design helped the product appeal to a younger demographic.
16. They made an appeal to the community for volunteers to help with the event.
17. The film's storyline is meant to appeal to fans of both romance and suspense genres.
18. After losing the case, the lawyer quickly prepared the necessary documents for an appeal.
19. The restaurant's special menu is likely to appeal to food enthusiasts looking for new experiences.
20. Her charm and wit made her a person many found it hard to resist or not to appeal to.
21. The charity launched a campaign to appeal for donations to help those in need.

22. Her heartfelt speech was intended to appeal to the audience's emotions and inspire action.
23. The colors and design of the new product are meant to appeal to a younger demographic.
24. He filed an appeal after the court's decision left him feeling unjustly treated.
25. The teacher's creativity in the classroom can greatly appeal to students' interests.
26. Their decision to renovate the old theater was aimed at enhancing its appeal to local residents.
27. The movie's stunning visuals and compelling storyline have a broad appeal to film lovers.
28. She made an appeal to her friends for help in organizing the charity event.
29. The restaurant's cozy atmosphere and friendly staff add to its overall appeal.
30. His argument failed to appeal to the judge, who remained firm in his ruling.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/appeal>