

APPEALABLE

Meaning: APPEALABLE: Capable of being challenged or reviewed in a higher court.

1. The court ruled that the decision was appealable within thirty days.
2. His conviction was deemed appealable due to new evidence coming to light.
3. She found solace in the fact that her case was appealable under the law.
4. The judge explained that certain rulings are not appealable, limiting options for the plaintiff.
5. After consulting with her attorney, she realized her sentence was indeed appealable.
6. The appealable nature of the verdict sparked a heated discussion among legal experts.
7. He felt confident that the appealable aspects of the case would lead to a different outcome.
8. Many defendants are unaware that not all decisions made by a trial court are appealable.
9. The attorney filed a notice of appeal, asserting that the ruling was appealable.
10. Understanding which decisions are appealable can significantly affect the litigation process.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/appealable>