

APPEALER

Meaning: An appellant is a person who formally requests a higher court to review and change the decision of a lower court.

1. The appellant's argument was compelling and swayed the jury's opinion.
2. As an appellant's legal team, we must prepare for the next court session.
3. The judge listened carefully to the appellant's concerns regarding the verdict.
4. An appellant's rights must be protected during the entire legal process.
5. The appellant's persistence in seeking justice was admirable.
6. In the courtroom, the appellant's demeanor was calm and collected.
7. The appellant's brief was filled with detailed evidence and strong reasoning.
8. After reviewing the case, the appellant's chances of success seem promising.
9. The appellant's testimony highlighted significant irregularities in the case.
10. To be an effective appellant, one must understand the nuances of law.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/appellant>