

APPENSION

Meaning: Appension is a strong or intense inclination or urge to act or create.

1. Appension can sometimes lead to an overwhelming sense of urgency in decision-making.
2. The artist's appension to create was evident in every brushstroke of her latest canvas.
3. During the meeting, her appension to address the budget concerns was palpable.
4. His appension for knowledge drove him to read extensively and explore various subjects.
5. The team's appension to innovate resulted in a groundbreaking product launch.
6. In moments of crisis, her appension to act swiftly often saved the day.
7. His appension for perfection made him a demanding leader but also inspired excellence.
8. The appension of the students to learn was inspiring to their teachers.
9. She felt a strong appension to travel the world and experience diverse cultures.
10. With a renewed appension for fitness, he committed to a rigorous training regimen.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/appension>