

APPETIZING

Meaning: Appetizing means having a pleasing appearance or smell that stimulates the appetite.

1. The freshly baked bread had an appetizing aroma that filled the kitchen.
2. She prepared an appetizing salad with vibrant colors and fresh ingredients.
3. The chef's special dish was not only delicious but also incredibly appetizing.
4. As soon as the dessert was placed on the table, it looked truly appetizing.
5. The sight of the grilled vegetables was appetizing enough to make anyone hungry.
6. He couldn't resist the appetizing smell of the barbecue wafting through the air.
7. The restaurant was known for its appetizing appetizers that left guests wanting more.
8. An appetizing bowl of soup sat steaming in front of her on the chilly evening.
9. The display of pastries was so appetizing that it drew customers to the bakery.
10. Even the simplest meal can be made appetizing with the right presentation.
11. She arranged the fruit platter in an appetizing way that caught everyone's eye.
12. The chef's special dish looked so appetizing that I couldn't resist ordering it.
13. As the guests arrived, the appetizing smell of spices wafted through the air.
14. The colorful salad was both nutritious and appetizing, making it a perfect starter.
15. He took a bite of the appetizing dessert and sighed with delight.
16. The restaurant's new menu featured several appetizing options for vegetarians.
17. After a long hike, the sight of an appetizing picnic spread was a welcome reward.
18. The presentation was so appetizing that it felt almost like a work of art.
19. Even the simplest meals can be made appetizing with the right seasoning and presentation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/appetizing>