

APPLAUDER

Meaning: APPLAUDER: a person who expresses approval or admiration, typically by clapping hands, especially in response to a performance or achievement.

1. The applauder rose to their feet, clapping enthusiastically after the final performance.
2. As an applauder, she always made sure to show her appreciation for the hard work of the artists.
3. His role as an applauder in the audience helped to create an uplifting atmosphere during the show.
4. Every applauder in the theater joined in the ovation, celebrating the cast's remarkable talent.
5. Being a dedicated applauder, he never missed a chance to support local theater productions.
6. The applauder's cheers echoed through the hall, filling the performers with energy and joy.
7. She became known as the most passionate applauder in the community, inspiring others to join her.
8. The applauder's heartfelt applause was a testament to the quality of the performance they had just witnessed.
9. In a world filled with critics, the applauder stood out for their unwavering support of the arts.
10. His identity as an applauder shaped his love for live performances and artistic expression.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/applauder>