

APPLE-JACK

Meaning: Apple-jack is a type of strong alcoholic beverage made from fermented apple cider, often associated with homemade production.

1. The children enjoyed a glass of apple-jack during the autumn festival.
2. He reminisced about the old days when they would make apple-jack in the backyard.
3. After a long day of picking apples, they rewarded themselves with homemade apple-jack.
4. The recipe for apple-jack was passed down through generations in his family.
5. On chilly evenings, nothing warmed him up quite like a sip of apple-jack.
6. They decided to host a tasting party featuring different varieties of apple-jack.
7. The apple-jack had a rich, smooth flavor that paired perfectly with the dessert.
8. In the small town, apple-jack was a cherished tradition each harvest season.
9. She marveled at how the apple-jack had developed a complex taste over the years.
10. The festival showcased local produce, including the highly sought-after apple-jack.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/apple-jack>