

APPLICATION

Meaning: Application: a formal request or submission for something, or a software program designed to perform specific tasks on a device.

1. The application for the scholarship was submitted last week.
2. She developed a new application to help users track their fitness goals.
3. His application for the job was impressive and stood out among the rest.
4. The application of this technology could revolutionize the industry.
5. After reviewing the application, the committee decided to grant the funding.
6. They are currently testing the application in a real-world environment.
7. Her creative application of the concept made the presentation memorable.
8. The application process can be quite lengthy and requires several documents.
9. He received a notification that his application had been approved.
10. Understanding the application of these principles is crucial for success.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/application>