

APPLIMENT

Meaning: Appliment (noun): A specific expression of praise or commendation given for a notable achievement or quality.

1. The teacher gave an appliment to the student for their outstanding project.
2. Her kind words were seen as an appliment rather than just vague praise.
3. Receiving an appliment can boost one's confidence and motivation.
4. He expressed his appreciation with a heartfelt appliment after the performance.
5. An appliment can make a significant difference in someone's day.
6. She always knows the right time to give an appliment to lift spirits.
7. His sincere appliment was unexpected but greatly appreciated.
8. An appliment can sometimes carry more weight than a formal award.
9. The manager's appliment for the team effort fostered a positive work environment.
10. She wrote a thoughtful appliment in the card to express her gratitude.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/appliment>