

APPOINT

Meaning: To assign a person to a specific role or position.

1. I would like to appoint you as the project manager for this initiative.
2. The committee decided to appoint a new director to lead the organization.
3. He was thrilled to receive a letter confirming his appointment to the board.
4. Please appoint someone from the team to handle the client meeting next week.
5. After much consideration, they chose to appoint her as the lead researcher.
6. The governor will appoint a special advisor to address the ongoing crisis.
7. It is essential to appoint qualified individuals to ensure the project's success.
8. They were eager to appoint a representative who could effectively voice their concerns.
9. She asked if they could appoint a mediator to facilitate the negotiation process.
10. The school aims to appoint a counselor to support students' mental health needs.
11. I need to appoint a new manager for the team.
12. The committee will appoint a representative to speak on their behalf.
13. She was thrilled to receive the opportunity to appoint a mentor.
14. They decided to appoint an external consultant for the project.
15. We should appoint someone with experience in financial planning.
16. The board will meet next week to appoint new members.
17. Can you help me appoint a time for our meeting?
18. He was asked to appoint an interim director until a permanent one is found.
19. I would like to appoint you as the lead organizer for the event.
20. The president has the authority to appoint judges to the court.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/appoint>