

APPOINTABLE

Meaning: Appointable (adjective): suitable or qualified to be appointed to a position or role.

1. The committee has reviewed the candidates and identified several appointable individuals.
2. She was deemed appointable after a thorough evaluation of her qualifications and experience.
3. In the upcoming election, only those who meet the criteria will be considered appointable.
4. His extensive background in management made him an appointable candidate for the position.
5. The board will discuss the appointable options during their next meeting.
6. Being appointable requires not just skills but also a strong ethical foundation.
7. They announced that all appointable members would be notified by the end of the week.
8. The organization aims to ensure that all appointable roles are filled by qualified professionals.
9. Her achievements in the field made her highly appointable for the leadership role.
10. The selection process is designed to highlight those who are most appointable based on merit.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/appointable>