

APPOSER

Meaning: Apposer: A person who presents an opposing argument or viewpoint in a discussion or debate.

1. The apposer boldly presented their argument during the debate.
2. In her essay, she acted as an apposer to the prevailing theories in her field.
3. The apposer challenged the assumptions made by the previous researchers.
4. As an apposer, he was not afraid to voice his dissenting opinions.
5. The role of the apposer is crucial in fostering a diverse array of viewpoints.
6. During the discussion, she emerged as a strong apposer of alternative solutions.
7. His position as an apposer allowed him to question the status quo effectively.
8. The apposer's insights provided a fresh perspective on the ongoing issue.
9. In academic circles, being an apposer can lead to significant breakthroughs.
10. The apposer's critiques often sparked lively debates among peers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/apposer>