

APPRECIATION

Meaning: Appreciation is the recognition and enjoyment of the value or quality of something, often accompanied by gratitude.

1. Her appreciation for classical music deepened after attending the concert.
2. The teacher expressed her appreciation for the students' hard work.
3. He felt a surge of appreciation for the beauty of the sunset.
4. Acknowledging her appreciation, he smiled and nodded in agreement.
5. The community gathered to show their appreciation for the volunteers' efforts.
6. She wrote a heartfelt letter of appreciation to her mentor.
7. His appreciation for fine art was evident in his extensive collection.
8. They celebrated their anniversary with an expression of mutual appreciation.
9. Her appreciation for nature grew during their hike in the mountains.
10. The manager's appreciation of the team's accomplishments boosted morale.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/appreciation>