

APPREHENSIVE

Meaning: Apprehensive: anxious or fearful about the future or a potential outcome.

1. She felt apprehensive about the upcoming exam, unsure if she had studied enough.
2. The dog appeared apprehensive as it approached the unfamiliar stranger.
3. His apprehensive demeanor suggested that he was not comfortable with the situation.
4. Despite her apprehensive nature, she decided to take the plunge and try skydiving.
5. The children were apprehensive about the thunderstorm that rumbled overhead.
6. He cast an apprehensive glance at the dark clouds gathering in the sky.
7. Even though she was excited, she also felt apprehensive about moving to a new city.
8. The team's apprehensive reaction to the sudden change in leadership was palpable.
9. As the deadline approached, many employees became apprehensive about meeting their targets.
10. Her apprehensive tone revealed her doubts about the project's success.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/apprehensive>