

APPRISE

Meaning: To inform or notify someone about something.

1. Please apprise me of any updates regarding the project timeline.
2. The teacher will apprise the students of the new curriculum changes.
3. It is essential to apprise the board members of our financial status before the meeting.
4. She decided to apprise her colleagues of the upcoming changes in policy.
5. We must apprise the community about the benefits of the new recycling program.
6. The manager called to apprise her team of the urgent deadline for the report.
7. He was careful to apprise his clients of all potential risks involved in the investment.
8. Before making a decision, please apprise yourself of all the relevant information.
9. The doctor will apprise you of the results as soon as they are available.
10. It is courteous to apprise your friends if you are running late for an event.
11. Please apprise me of any changes to the schedule as soon as possible.
12. The manager will apprise the team about the new project guidelines during the meeting.
13. It is crucial to apprise your supervisor of the situation before making any decisions.
14. She took it upon herself to apprise the staff of the recent developments in the company.
15. The briefings aim to apprise the public of the safety measures being implemented.
16. We need to apprise our clients of the potential delays in the delivery.
17. He was quick to apprise his colleagues of the exciting news regarding their promotion.
18. Make sure to apprise the board of directors about the financial status at the next meeting.
19. The report was designed to apprise stakeholders of the environmental impact assessment results.
20. Please apprise me of your availability for the upcoming conference by the end of the week.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/apprise>