

APPROVING

Meaning: Approving: expressing or showing approval or support for something.

1. The committee was approving of the new budget proposal presented by the finance team.
2. Her approving nod indicated that she was satisfied with the project's progress.
3. He received an approving glance from his mentor after delivering the presentation.
4. The manager's approving comments boosted the team's morale significantly.
5. They were met with an approving response from the audience after the performance.
6. The board members exchanged approving smiles as they reviewed the successful quarterly report.
7. She felt a surge of happiness at her parents' approving remarks about her achievements.
8. His approving expression made it clear that he supported the decision to move forward.
9. The teacher gave an approving thumbs-up after the students completed their assignment.
10. The community was largely approving of the new park initiative launched by the city.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/approving>