

APPULSION

Meaning: Appulsion refers to a strong, often involuntary urge or impulse to move away or be drawn towards something, typically driven by an emotional or physical force.

1. The appulsion of the magnetic forces created a mesmerizing visual display.
2. Her appulsion to leave the crowded room was palpable as anxiety began to rise.
3. The appulsion he felt towards the project motivated him to work late into the night.
4. Despite the risks, the appulsion to explore the unknown drove the scientists forward.
5. The appulsion between the two competing ideas sparked a heated debate among the scholars.
6. He experienced a sudden appulsion to break free from the routine of his daily life.
7. The appulsion of gravity pulled the satellite closer to the planet's surface.
8. In her art, there was a clear appulsion towards vibrant colors and bold strokes.
9. The appulsion to connect with nature led him to hike in the mountains every weekend.
10. Their appulsion for adventure often took them to the most remote corners of the globe.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/appulsion>