

APRONED

Meaning: APRONED (adjective): wearing an apron, typically indicating readiness for cooking or food preparation.

1. The chef, apron-clad and focused, prepared the ingredients meticulously.
2. She entered the kitchen, apron tied securely around her waist, ready to cook.
3. The children watched eagerly as their mother, apron-stained, baked cookies.
4. He donned an apron before diving into the messy world of paint and canvas.
5. The restaurant staff, all apron-wearing, moved efficiently between tables.
6. In her apron pocket, she kept a small notepad for jotting down recipe ideas.
7. With an apron draped over her dress, she tackled the weekend dinner preparations.
8. The baker, apron dusted with flour, expertly shaped the dough into loaves.
9. As the apron flapped around her, she stirred the pot with a wooden spoon.
10. He felt a sense of pride as he stepped back, apron on, to admire his culinary creation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aproned>