

APRONFUL

Meaning: Apronful: the amount that can be carried or held in an apron, typically referring to a quantity of food or produce.

1. She filled her apronful with freshly picked apples from the orchard.
2. After the baking class, she walked home with an apronful of delicious cookies.
3. The gardener returned with an apronful of herbs to spice up the evening meal.
4. He scooped an apronful of flour onto the counter to start making bread.
5. With an apronful of berries, she was excited to make her famous jam.
6. The chef skillfully tossed an apronful of chopped vegetables into the sizzling pan.
7. An apronful of colorful fabrics lay ready for the quilting project ahead.
8. She gathered an apronful of pinecones for the fall decoration.
9. The children ran in with an apronful of acorns they had collected in the park.
10. He carefully poured an apronful of grains into the mixing bowl for the recipe.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/apronful>