

APTEROUS

Meaning: Apterous: lacking wings or wing-like structures.

1. The apterous insect struggled to navigate its environment without wings.
2. Scientists discovered a new species of apterous beetle in the dense rainforest.
3. The apterous condition of the creature fascinated the entomologists studying its adaptation.
4. In the world of birds, some species have evolved to be apterous due to their specific habitats.
5. The apterous variety of the butterfly is a rare sight in nature.
6. Many apterous organisms have developed unique survival strategies to thrive without flight.
7. During the research, the team noted that the apterous form was more resilient in certain climates.
8. The absence of wings in these apterous animals often leads to different behavioral patterns.
9. The study focused on the genetic mutations that result in apterous characteristics.
10. Field observations revealed how apterous species interacted with their environments differently than their winged counterparts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/apterous>