

ARBITRABLE

Meaning: Arbitrable refers to issues or disputes that are capable of being settled by arbitration rather than through litigation in a court.

1. In many legal disputes, the issues presented are often deemed arbitrable by the court.
2. The contract clearly outlined which matters were arbitrable and which were not.
3. Her attorney argued that the case was arbitrable under existing arbitration laws.
4. Despite their differences, the parties agreed that the dispute was arbitrable and should proceed to arbitration.
5. The judge ruled that the claims made were arbitrable and could be resolved outside of court.
6. In labor negotiations, certain grievances are considered arbitrable to expedite resolution.
7. The arbitration clause in their agreement specified all disputes as arbitrable.
8. Understanding what constitutes an arbitrable issue is crucial for effective conflict resolution.
9. Before proceeding, they needed to determine if their disagreement was arbitrable according to the terms of the contract.
10. The lawyers presented evidence to support that their case was indeed arbitrable, avoiding lengthy litigation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/arbitrable>