

ARBITRAL

Meaning: Arbitral refers to matters related to arbitration, particularly concerning the resolution of disputes by an appointed tribunal or the decisions made by such a tribunal.

1. The parties agreed to resolve their dispute through an arbitral tribunal.
2. The arbitral award was final and binding on both sides.
3. He served as an arbitrator in several high-profile arbitral cases.
4. The contract included a clause stipulating that any disputes would be settled via arbitral proceedings.
5. After months of deliberation, the arbitral panel issued its decision.
6. She had confidence in the arbitral process to deliver a fair outcome.
7. The rules governing the arbitral process were outlined in the agreement.
8. Arbitral institutions play a crucial role in international dispute resolution.
9. The confidentiality of the arbitral hearings was strictly maintained.
10. In her view, the arbitral mechanism provided a quicker alternative to litigation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/arbitral>