

ARBITRATING

Meaning: Arbitrating refers to the process of resolving a dispute or settling differences between parties, typically by an impartial third party.

1. The committee is arbitrating the dispute between the two rival factions.
2. She has been arbitrating cases in family law for over a decade.
3. Their role in the negotiation involved arbitrating terms that satisfied both parties.
4. The judge was tasked with arbitrating the settlement to ensure fairness.
5. Arbitrating international trade agreements requires a deep understanding of global economics.
6. He found himself arbitrating a complex situation that required delicate handling.
7. The organization specializes in arbitrating conflicts related to labor disputes.
8. After weeks of deliberation, the panel finally began arbitrating the claims presented.
9. The team was skilled in arbitrating issues quickly to avoid prolonged conflicts.
10. Arbitrating between competing interests can be a challenging but rewarding endeavor.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/arbitrating>