

ARBORIFORM

Meaning: Arboriform refers to a shape or structure that resembles a tree, particularly in branching or form.

1. The botanist was fascinated by the arboriform structure of the ancient tree.
2. The design of the new park featured an arboriform sculpture that mimicked the shape of a tree.
3. In architecture, an arboriform layout can create a sense of harmony with nature.
4. The artist's work often included arboriform motifs to emphasize organic growth.
5. During the hike, they came across an arboriform formation that resembled a natural cathedral.
6. The research highlighted the importance of arboriform plants in urban environments.
7. She admired the arboriform architecture of the building, which blended seamlessly with its surroundings.
8. The fantasy novel included an arboriform species that towered over the other trees in the forest.
9. In botany, arboriform refers to shapes that resemble trees, both in form and structure.
10. The garden's design was inspired by arboriform patterns found in nature, creating a tranquil space.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/arboriform>