ARCHETYPAL

Meaning: Archetypal refers to something that is a typical example or original model of a particular kind, often representing universal patterns or themes in literature and character traits.

1. The hero's journey is often seen as an archetypal narrative structure in literature.
2. Her character embodies the archetypal qualities of strength and resilience.
3. In many cultures, the wise old man serves as an archetypal figure in folklore.
4. The film presents an archetypal love story that resonates across generations.
5. His actions were archetypal of the rebellious youth, challenging authority at every turn.
6. The artist's work often reflects archetypal themes of good versus evil.
7. She portrayed the archetypal villain, complete with a dark past and sinister motives.
8. The book explores archetypal symbols that transcend cultural boundaries.
9. In psychology, the concept of the archetypal self is central to understanding personal identity.
10. The character's journey is a perfect example of an archetypal transformation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/archetypal