

ARCHETYPICAL

Meaning: Archetypical refers to something that is a typical or ideal example of a particular type or category, embodying its essential characteristics.

1. The protagonist in the novel is an archetypical hero who overcomes great odds.
2. Her artwork captures the archetypical essence of beauty and grace.
3. In many cultures, the archetypical figure of the wise old man appears in folklore.
4. The film's archetypical love story resonates with audiences of all ages.
5. He embodies the archetypical traits of a successful entrepreneur: determination and resilience.
6. The teacher used an archetypical example to explain the concept to her students.
7. Many fairy tales feature archetypical characters such as the villain and the innocent maiden.
8. The architect drew inspiration from archetypical designs found in ancient civilizations.
9. In psychology, Carl Jung emphasized the importance of archetypical symbols in the human psyche.
10. The story reflects the archetypical struggle between good and evil that is timeless.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/archetypical>