

ARCHIPELAGIC

Meaning: Archipelagic refers to relating to or characteristic of an archipelago, a group of islands, especially in terms of geography or ecological diversity.

1. The archipelagic nature of the region makes it a unique destination for biodiversity.
2. Traveling through the archipelagic landscape, we discovered countless hidden beaches.
3. The nation's economy heavily relies on its archipelagic resources, including fishing and tourism.
4. Studying the archipelagic ecosystems reveals important insights into climate change effects.
5. Many archipelagic nations face challenges related to rising sea levels and natural disasters.
6. The cultural diversity found in this archipelagic area is a reflection of its varied history.
7. His research focused on the archipelagic connectivity between species across different islands.
8. Exploring archipelagic routes is essential for understanding maritime navigation history.
9. The archipelagic setting provided a stunning backdrop for the documentary film.
10. Her fascination with archipelagic societies grew after visiting several remote islands.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/archipelagic>