

ARCHIVAL

Meaning: ARCHIVAL: relating to or consisting of documents, records, or materials that are preserved for their historical significance.

1. The library's archival collection includes rare manuscripts dating back to the 15th century.
2. She spent hours in the archival room, meticulously cataloging historical documents.
3. The museum's archival photographs offer a glimpse into the town's rich history.
4. Digital archival systems have transformed the way we preserve and access old records.
5. Researchers rely heavily on archival materials to substantiate their findings.
6. He discovered an archival video that revealed the events of that fateful day.
7. The archival quality of the film was astonishing, preserving colors and details beautifully.
8. Archival journals are essential for documenting the evolution of scientific theories.
9. They implemented a new archival policy to ensure the longevity of important records.
10. Her thesis was grounded in extensive archival research, showcasing primary sources.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/archival>