

ARCHPRIEST

Meaning: An archpriest is a senior priest in certain Christian denominations who has authority over other priests and often leads a congregation.

1. The archpriest delivered a stirring sermon that captivated the entire congregation.
2. In the small village, the archpriest was a beloved figure known for his kindness and wisdom.
3. During the festival, the archpriest blessed the fields to ensure a bountiful harvest.
4. The archpriest's robes were adorned with intricate patterns that symbolized his high status.
5. It was the archpriest's duty to oversee the other priests and ensure they followed the traditions.
6. Many sought the archpriest's counsel during times of personal strife and uncertainty.
7. The archpriest organized a charity event to help the less fortunate in the community.
8. Historians noted the archpriest's role in the development of local religious practices.
9. A new archpriest was appointed, bringing fresh ideas to the long-established parish.
10. The archpriest emphasized the importance of unity and compassion in his teachings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/archpriest>