

ARE

Meaning: 'Are' is the plural present tense form of the verb 'be,' used to indicate existence, identity, or a state of being for multiple subjects.

1. They are planning a surprise party for her birthday.
2. The stars in the sky are shining brightly tonight.
3. Children are often more curious than adults.
4. Our favorite movies are usually comedies or thrillers.
5. There are many ways to solve this problem.
6. You and I are going to make a great team.
7. The flowers in the garden are in full bloom.
8. These cookies are freshly baked and delicious.
9. The questions on the test are quite challenging.
10. Friends are always there to support you in tough times.
11. They are going to the park after lunch.
12. The flowers are blooming beautifully this spring.
13. You are always welcome to join us for dinner.
14. These books are on sale at the local bookstore.
15. We are excited about the upcoming concert.
16. Her friends are visiting from out of town.
17. The results are better than we expected.
18. There are many challenges ahead of us.
19. The kids are playing outside in the sunshine.
20. Our plans are still in the early stages of development.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/are>