

ARGOLIC

Meaning: Argolic refers to a type of clay soil that is rich in argillaceous materials, often beneficial for agriculture and characterized by its ability to retain moisture and nutrients.

1. The argolic nature of the soil contributed greatly to the vineyard's success.
2. As the argolic clay dried in the sun, it cracked beautifully, revealing intricate patterns.
3. Farmers in the region prized argolic land for its ability to retain moisture during dry spells.
4. The argolic characteristics of the landscape made it a unique destination for geologists.
5. She admired the argolic hues of the earth as she walked through the fields.
6. The argolic deposits found in the area were rich in minerals essential for plant growth.
7. During his studies, he focused on the argolic formations that shaped the valley's terrain.
8. Many artists have been inspired by the rich argolic colors of the rural landscape.
9. The report highlighted the argolic features that defined the local ecosystem.
10. Her research on argolic soils revealed their impact on agricultural practices in the region.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/argolic>