

ARGUMENT

Meaning: Argument: a discussion or dispute in which opposing viewpoints are presented, often involving reasoning or evidence to support a particular position.

1. The argument between the two friends escalated quickly into a heated debate.
2. In his essay, he presented a compelling argument for climate action.
3. They had a disagreement, but it was more of a discussion than a serious argument.
4. Her argument was well-researched and supported by credible sources.
5. Despite their differing opinions, they managed to conclude the argument amicably.
6. The professor encouraged students to challenge his argument and provide counterexamples.
7. He felt that the argument made in the article was overly simplistic.
8. An effective argument should address potential counterarguments to strengthen its position.
9. The argument presented in the meeting led to a new partnership opportunity.
10. She regretted the argument they had, realizing it was based on a misunderstanding.
11. The argument between the two friends lasted for hours without resolution.
12. She presented a compelling argument that swayed the entire jury.
13. His argument was based on solid evidence and logical reasoning.
14. They had a heated argument over the best way to solve the problem.
15. In a debate, it's crucial to anticipate the counter-argument.
16. Their argument for climate action was both passionate and well-informed.
17. The professor encouraged students to engage in healthy argument to enhance learning.
18. After some reflection, he realized his argument had several flaws.
19. The argument on social media quickly escalated into personal attacks.
20. Finding common ground can often resolve a seemingly irreconcilable argument.

