

ARGUMENTAL

Meaning: Argumental refers to relating to or characterized by reasoning or the use of arguments in discussions or debates.

1. The professor's lecture on argumental structures was enlightening and comprehensive.
2. In the debate, her argumental approach effectively swayed the audience's opinion.
3. The argumental analysis revealed underlying biases in the presented data.
4. He excelled in crafting argumental frameworks that challenged conventional thinking.
5. Their discussion became increasingly argumental as they delved into the complexities of philosophy.
6. She appreciated the argumental style of writing that supported her thesis.
7. Understanding the argumental context is crucial for effective communication.
8. The team's argumental strategy was well-received in the competitive environment.
9. His argumental skills were sharpened through years of rigorous academic debate.
10. The article provided a detailed argumental breakdown of the main issues at stake.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/argumental>