

ARGUMENTATION

Meaning: Argumentation is the process of presenting and supporting a claim or position through reasoning and evidence in order to persuade others.

1. Effective argumentation requires a clear understanding of both sides of an issue.
2. Her essay on climate change showcased impressive argumentation backed by extensive research.
3. The debate team practiced their argumentation skills to prepare for the national competition.
4. Strong argumentation often involves anticipating counterarguments and addressing them effectively.
5. In philosophy, argumentation is crucial for developing and analyzing complex ideas.
6. He excelled in argumentation, effortlessly persuading his peers with logical reasoning.
7. The seminar focused on the principles of argumentation in written and spoken discourse.
8. Understanding the nuances of argumentation can greatly enhance one's persuasive abilities.
9. Argumentation that relies on emotional appeal can sometimes overshadow logical reasoning.
10. The workshop aimed to improve participants' argumentation techniques in everyday discussions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/argumentation>