

ARGUMENTATIVE

Meaning: Argumentative: inclined to express differing opinions or engage in disputes, often characterized by a confrontational or assertive manner.

1. The argumentative nature of the debate led to a lively discussion among participants.
2. She had an argumentative tone in her voice that hinted at her strong beliefs.
3. His argumentative essays often challenged conventional wisdom and provoked thought.
4. The classroom atmosphere became tense due to the student's argumentative demeanor.
5. They enjoyed engaging in argumentative discussions over dinner, often sparking new ideas.
6. Her argumentative style made it difficult for others to present their viewpoints.
7. In a heated debate, he remained calm despite the highly argumentative crowd.
8. The article was filled with argumentative points that supported its controversial thesis.
9. An argumentative approach can be effective in persuading an audience to consider different perspectives.
10. While being argumentative can foster debate, it can also alienate those with differing opinions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/argumentative>