

ARGUTATION

Meaning: Argutation refers to a method of argumentation or reasoning, particularly in a formal or persuasive context.

1. The lawyer's argutation during the trial was both compelling and intricate.
2. Her argutation was so well-structured that it swayed even the most skeptical jury members.
3. In a heated debate, his argutation highlighted the flaws in the opposing team's logic.
4. Their argutation focused on the ethical implications of the proposed legislation.
5. The professor praised her student's argutation for its clarity and depth of analysis.
6. Each point in his argutation was backed by solid evidence and thorough research.
7. The argutation surrounding climate change continues to evolve as new data emerges.
8. She delivered her argutation with confidence, making it difficult for anyone to refute her claims.
9. His argutation made a strong case for adopting renewable energy sources.
10. An effective argutation requires not only good reasoning but also persuasive rhetoric.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/argutation>