

ARMORED

Meaning: ARMORED: equipped with a protective covering or shield, especially to enhance defense in combat situations.

1. The knight rode into battle on his armored horse, gleaming in the sunlight.
2. The museum displayed an impressive collection of armored vehicles from World War II.
3. She felt a sense of security inside the armored car as they drove through the rough neighborhood.
4. The armored personnel carrier moved steadily through the dense forest, ready for any ambush.
5. His heart was armored against the pain of betrayal, determined not to let it affect him.
6. The futuristic film featured an armored suit that allowed the protagonist to fly effortlessly.
7. Despite the storm outside, the armored glass windows kept the cafe warm and cozy.
8. The city deployed armored units to maintain order during the protests.
9. Her thoughts were armored with logic, shielding her from the emotional turmoil of the situation.
10. The superhero's armored gauntlets glowed with energy as he prepared to confront the villain.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/armored>