

ARMORER

Meaning: An armorer is a person responsible for the manufacture, repair, and maintenance of weapons and armor.

1. The armorer carefully inspected each piece of weaponry before the battle.
2. She decided to become an armorer after her fascination with medieval weaponry grew.
3. The armorer skillfully crafted a new suit of armor for the knight.
4. In ancient times, the armorer played a crucial role in preparing for war.
5. He consulted with the armorer to ensure the weapons were battle-ready.
6. The armorer's workshop was filled with the sounds of hammering and grinding.
7. Training under a master armorer, she learned the art of metalwork.
8. As an armorer, he was responsible for maintaining the soldiers' equipment.
9. The armorer presented his latest designs at the annual weapons fair.
10. In the film, the armorer was portrayed as a wise mentor to the young hero.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/armorer>