

ARREST

Meaning: Arrest (verb): To seize someone by legal authority and take them into custody, typically due to suspected criminal activity.

1. The police decided to arrest the suspect after gathering enough evidence.
2. His reckless behavior finally led to his arrest at the city park.
3. She was relieved to hear that her friend was released shortly after the arrest.
4. The arrest of the notorious criminal brought a sense of safety to the community.
5. They had to carefully plan the arrest to avoid any potential violence.
6. After the arrest, the lawyer worked diligently to prepare a defense strategy.
7. Witnesses reported seeing the arrest unfold in front of the local diner.
8. It was shocking to learn that the arrest was made during a routine traffic stop.
9. The arrest sparked a heated debate about police procedures in the area.
10. Despite the arrest, many people still believed in the suspect's innocence.
11. Her heart raced as she watched the officers make the arrest in her neighborhood.
12. He was taken into custody following the arrest, awaiting trial for his alleged crimes.
13. The dramatic arrest was captured on live television, drawing attention from viewers nationwide.
14. Authorities issued a statement confirming the arrest of the dangerous fugitive.
15. Witnesses reported hearing loud sirens just before the arrest took place.
16. After a lengthy investigation, they were finally able to arrest the mastermind behind the scheme.
17. The arrest was hailed as a significant victory in the fight against organized crime.
18. Despite the arrest, many community members still supported the accused.
19. The legal team prepared to challenge the validity of the arrest in court.
20. The police were called to the scene to make an arrest after the altercation.
21. She was shocked to learn that her neighbor had a warrant for his arrest.
22. The officer decided to arrest the suspect after gathering enough evidence.

23. A swift arrest was made before the suspect could flee the area.
24. He faced multiple charges that could lead to a lengthy arrest record.
25. The dramatic arrest was captured live on television, drawing the public's attention.
26. After a thorough investigation, the detectives were able to arrest the mastermind behind the scheme.
27. The judge issued a statement urging the police to conduct arrests fairly and without bias.
28. They were relieved to hear that the suspect's arrest would bring some closure to the case.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/arrest>