

ARRESTER

Meaning: An arrester is a device used to protect electrical systems by diverting excess voltage or current, such as from power surges or lightning strikes.

1. The electrician recommended installing an arrester to protect our home from power surges.
2. During the storm, the lightning arrester successfully diverted the electrical charge away from the building.
3. He was surprised to learn that the arrester was a crucial component of the electrical system.
4. Without the arrester, the sensitive equipment would have been at risk of damage.
5. The company specializes in manufacturing high-performance arresters for industrial use.
6. She learned that a proper arrester can significantly reduce the risk of fire caused by electrical faults.
7. The technician inspected the arrester to ensure it was functioning correctly.
8. In areas prone to thunderstorms, having a lightning arrester is essential for safety.
9. The new model of arrester is designed to withstand harsher environmental conditions.
10. Installing an arrester is a proactive measure to safeguard against unexpected voltage spikes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/arrester>