

ARROGANT

Meaning: Arrogant: having an exaggerated sense of one's own importance or abilities, often leading to disdain for others.

1. She found his arrogant attitude to be off-putting during their discussions.
2. The CEO's arrogant demeanor alienated many of his employees.
3. Despite his talent, his arrogant nature often overshadowed his accomplishments.
4. Her arrogant dismissal of their concerns made it difficult to work together.
5. They were impressed by his skills but couldn't ignore his arrogant remarks.
6. Even in victory, his arrogant celebration rubbed many the wrong way.
7. The team's success was overshadowed by the captain's arrogant behavior.
8. He spoke in an arrogant tone that suggested he believed he was always right.
9. The arrogant critic dismissed the artist's work without a second thought.
10. His arrogant belief that he was above the rules created tension in the office.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/arrogant>