

ARROGATION

Meaning: Arrogation refers to the act of claiming or taking something for oneself without justification, often involving resources or rights.

1. The farmer's arrogation of the land allowed for efficient water distribution.
2. Arrogation of public resources for private gain is often criticized by watchdog groups.
3. In legal terms, arrogation can refer to the appropriation of land without proper consent.
4. The community faced challenges due to the arrogation of their traditional fishing grounds.
5. His arrogation of authority over the project led to resentment among team members.
6. Arrogation of personal space can create discomfort in social interactions.
7. The company's arrogation of the software's intellectual property raised ethical concerns.
8. They argued that the arrogation of power by the ruling party undermined democratic principles.
9. Arrogation of indigenous rights has been a persistent issue in many countries.
10. The historian noted the arrogation of cultural artifacts during colonial times.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/arrogation>