

ARROWHEAD

Meaning: Arrowhead: a pointed stone or metal tip used at the end of an arrow, typically designed for hunting or warfare.

1. The archaeologist discovered an ancient arrowhead in the excavation site.
2. Native Americans often crafted arrowheads from flint and obsidian for hunting.
3. During the camping trip, we found a beautiful arrowhead while hiking in the woods.
4. The museum had a fascinating display of arrowheads from various cultures around the world.
5. He used an arrowhead to start a fire, demonstrating a crucial survival skill.
6. Her collection of arrowheads included pieces that dated back thousands of years.
7. The design of the arrowhead has evolved significantly over the centuries.
8. She carefully polished the arrowhead, revealing the intricate patterns etched into the stone.
9. In archery, the choice of arrowhead can greatly affect the arrow's performance and accuracy.
10. The discovery of the arrowhead provided valuable insights into the lives of prehistoric people.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/arrowhead>